From the Amsterdam Gazette and Courant.

Rome, Feb. 5.

THE 31st of last Month, a Courier from the Court of France, brought the News to Cardinal de la Tremouille of the Birth of the Duke of Britany, which his Eminency notified the next Morning to the Pope, to whom he deliver'd a Letter on that Subject written by the King of France with his own Hand, full of very civil and dutiful Expressions of Filial Obedience to the holy Roman See: His said Eminency having notified the same News to the sacred College of Cardinals, has receiv'd, as well from his Holyness as from them, Compliments of Congratulation and Thanks; and Te Deum will be solemnly sung on this Occasion in the Church of St. Lewis belonging to the French Nation; but his Eminency will not make any publick Entertainment, the King his Master having written to him, that that Expence might be better laid out in Alms to the Poor, and in Masses to beg of God (during this Time of Jubile,) both to preserve the young Prince and to grant Peace to Europe. All Diversions are restrain'd here, so that we have not the least sign of its being Cathival-Time. The 1st Instant the Duke de Sora Prince of Piombino, of the House of Buoncompagni, died suddenly of an Apoplexy in the 65 h Year of his Age. The 2d, being Candlemas-day, the Pope held a Chappel in the Vatican, distributed a great Number of White Waxcandles to the Persons present, as the manner is on that Day, and assisted at a Procession and at the Te Deum which was sung by his Order, in Thanksgiving for the Deliverance of this City from the Danger with which it was threaten'd by the great Earthquake that Day 4 Years ago. 'Tis the Custom on the same Day, for the Guardians of every Church in this City to wait on the Pope in the Afternoon, and present him a Waxcandle: Among the rest this Time, appear'd the Guardians of the Church of S. Anthony belonging to the Portuguese Nation, and offer'd him their Waxcandle; but their Church continuing shut up still, because they will not submit to an Apostolical Visitation, his Holyness refus'd their Present. Cardinal Grimani took Occasion of the Celebration of that Day in the Church of our Lady of Montserrat, to order by a Letter M. Molines and the Guardians (or Churchwardens) of that Church, to put up the Arms of King Charles III. over the Porch, and his Picture in the Church; and inform'd Cardinal Paolucci Secretary of State with what he had done, that by his Means he might know the Pope's Sentiments on this Matter, which he had Orders to give an Account of to the Imperial Court and Prince Eugene of Savoy. But the Duke d'Uzeda Ambassador of Spain for King Philip, having form'd a Design to prevent him, sent armed Men into the said Church, who put up the Pictures of King Philip and his Consort: And now this Court has something to do, to prevent the ill Consequences that are apprehended from this Occurrence.

Venice, Feb. 11. The Diversions of the Carnival are continued here; and last Night was represented on the Theatre of Signior Gio Giustiniani, a new Opera of the Composition of Count Frizinelega, intitul'd the Triumph of Liberty, which receiv'd the general Applause of the very numerous Audience. The Electores of Bavaria continues here incognito, without any Appearance of her Removal a long Time elsewhere. The Duke of Mantua is come from Verona to Padua, and is hourly expected here.

From the Amsterdam Courant, Feb. 26.

Turin, Feb. 7. Our Duke having erected the District of Rivoli into a Marquisate, has confer'd it on General Taun, who has accordingly taken upon himself the Title of Marquis of Rivoli: His Royal Highness has besides made him a Present of a Service of Plate weighing 2500 Ounces, and the common Hall of this City have also presented him with a Sword having a gold Hilt set with Diamonds, in Consideration of the great Services by him render'd to this City, especially in the last Siege. The Bishop of Casal is arriv'd here, and his said those of Vigevano, Novara, and Alexandria are expected, to pay Homage to his Royal Highness. This Evening a Courier arriv'd from Milan with an Account, that the Allies had begun to fire upon that Castle. The Enemy are fortifying all the Posts in Dauphine from Grenoble to Suza, in order to hinder our Duke from breaking into France the next Campaign, for which Preparations are making with the utmost Application and Diligence.

Vienna, Feb. 12. Count Tarini, the Duke of Savoy's Envoy, has by Order from his Master acquainted the Imperial Court, that his Royal Highness having certain Intelligence the French will exert their utmost Effort to reenter Italy with a powerful Army, and endeavour to recover their lost Footing there, recommends it earnestly to the Imperial Court to take proper Measures timely thereupon. P. Eugene has given this Court full Assurance of the Duke of Savoy's steady Zeal for the Common Cause; whereupon 'tis resolv'd that Letters of Investiture of the Fiefs of Alexandria, Valenza, and Lumelino, together with the Lands belonging to them lying between the Po and the Tanaro, shall pursuant to the Alliance with his Royal Highness, and with the Consent of the the King of Spain, be forthwith made out in due Form for his Royal Highness by the Imperial Chancery. The Duke of Mantua uses great Endeavours to stop the Proceedings that are begun for putting him under the Ban of the Empire, offering to put the Emperour into Possession of his Capital City; but in vain hitherto, the Imperial Court appearing determin'd to go through with that Design. Letters from Presbourg confirm the Junction of the Troops commanded by General Staremberg, with those under the Generals Rabutin and Palfi; that the former has taken upon him the Command of the whole, and that General Rabutin is to come to Court to give an Account of his Conduct. M. Guarient the Imperial Envoy extraordinary to the Ottoman Porte, has sent Letters from Belgrade, advising that he arriv'd there from Constantinople the 20th of last Month in his Return hither. Prince Gaston of Tuscany is arriv'd here. General Dopf is expected hourly: The Imperial Ministers have Conferences together daily about the present State of Affairs, to prepare Matters against the Arrival of the said Dutch General, Prince Eugene of Savoy and Count Schlick. The Princes of Italy have made Remonstrances to the Emperour, concerning the Contributions demanded of them, but this Court persist in maintaining their Conduct in that Affair: And as for the Pope, tho' the Emperour has written an Answer in very moderate Terms to the sharp Letter his Holiness sent him, yet he gives him no Hope of lessening the Demands of Contributions that have been made of the Ecclesiastical Territories, nor of recalling his Troops out of the Ferrareze. An Express is expected from Spain, with the final Resolution of King Charles III about the Marriage propos'd between him and the Princess of Wolfembuttel: In the mean time the Princess of Carignano is recommended with great Earnestness by certain Persons: But 'tis believ'd the first Match will take, and some say Count Philip of Sinzendorf is actually nominated to conduct the Princess of Wolfembuttel hither.
